Nursing Mothers and Over-burdened Women

In all stations of life, whose vigor and vitality may have been undermined and broken down by over-work, exacting social duties, the too frequent bearing of children, or other causes, will find in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription the most potent, invigorating restorative strength-giver ever devised for their special benefit. Nursing mothers will find it especially valuable in sustaining their strength and promoting an abundant nourishment for the child. Expectant mothers too will find it a priceless safeguard against the system for baby's coming and rendering the ordeal comparatively painless. It can do no harm in any state, or condition.

Delicate, nervous, weak women, who suffer from frequent headaches, backache, dragging down distress low down in the abdomen, or from painful or irregular monthly periods, gnawing or distressed sensation in stomach, dizzy or faint spells, see imaginary spots or spots floating before eyes, have disagreeable, pelvic catarrhal drain, prolapsus, anteversion or retroversion or other displacements of womanly organs from weakness of parts will, whether they experience more or only a few of the above symptoms, find relief and a permanent cure by using faithfully and persistently Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This world-famous specific for woman's weakness and peculiar ailments is a pure glyceric extract of the choicest native medicinal roots without a drop of alcohol in its make-up. All its ingredients printed in plain English on its bottle wrapper and attested under oath. Dr. Pierce thus invites the fullest investigation of his formula knowing that it will be found to contain only the best agents known to the most advanced medical science of all the latest schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments.

If you want to know more about the composition and professional endorsement of the "Favorite Prescription," send postal card request to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for his free booklet treating of same.

You can't afford to accept as a substitute for this remedy of known composition a secret nostrum of unknown composition. Don't do it.

KILLED BY A MANIAO.

Late last night a posse of armed citizens, after a day's search, was still beating the woods in the vicinity of Holmesville, Ohio, in search of Oscar E. Boley, a maniac, who, while resisting arrested, murdered Sheriff Jacob Bell, of Holmes county, yesterday morning at Big Prairie, south of Shreve.

Word has been sent to farmers throughout the countryside to protect themselves against possible murderous assault by the man, and many have barricaded their doors and windows.

Boley has a shotgun and 24 shells, and further violence is feared. He was last seen entering the woods near Holmesville.

Boley escaped from the Massillon State Hospital Wednesday. On that night he attended prayer meeting at the Methodist Church, sitting in the congregation with a shotgun standing between his knees.

After church he went to the home of Roy Lee. Early yesterday Sheriff Bell was sent for. He was met at the door by Boley, who fired. Bell died an hour later.

After several hours' pursuit, the posse caught sight of Boley in Paint valley, 8 miles out from Big Prairie. An attempt was made to surround and capture him, but he eluded the members of the posse, and the chase was still in progress last night.

EAGLE SUES FOR DAMAGES.

Thomas Lewis, alleging that he sustained a broken leg and other injuries while being initiated into Butler, Pa., Aerie Fraternal Order of Eagles, has brought suit against that aerie and its officers for $5,000 damages.

Lewis further alleges that he was forced into a "catapult, seat, or chair" while blindfolded, and that two of the members were appointed to operate a contrivance, one on each side of it, and that he was hoisted into the air, it, and with a swinging movement forward the plaintiff was thrown upward and forward on the floor of said hall, and one of the said degree team operating said contrivance carelessly and negligently let go his side of the chair, causing the contrivance to tip and throw the plaintiff violently to the floor, causing him to break the right leg.

"The plaintiff alleges that there was neither fun nor profit in the initiation," the plea concludes.

Butler Aerie membership includes prominent residents. The night Lewis was injured it was given out that he had fallen down steps.

BRIEF IN R. F. & P. CASE.

Braxton & Eggleston, representing the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad, in the tax suit brought against the commonwealth, have filed their brief with the clerk of the Court of Appeals. The paper contains ninety-two printed pages, and goes exhaustively into the question. The attorney-general is preparing his reply brief in the case, which will come up for hearing on January 4 and 5. The suit involves the attempted collection of franchise taxes assessed against the railroad by the state corporation commission. A prominent point in the case is the interpretation and application of a clause in the Constitution of the United States, which prohibits a state from enacting any law impairing the obligation of a contract. (Richmond Times Dispatch.)

SHE WAS INQUISITIVE.

"Lady De Bathre—Our old friend, Mrs. Langtry—is bringing out a novel and a volume of memoirs," said a Chicago publisher. "Both books should be witty."

"Lady De Bath is a very witty person. Her wit is audacious. I'll never forget a specimen of it that enlightened a Michigan avenue dinner party on her last American tour."

"Lady De Bath during dinner said to a woman seated near her: 'Who is that fat man over there with the curious blue face?'"

"That is my husband," the woman answered, her voice tremulous with rage.

"Oh, how fortunate!" said Lady De Bath. "You're the very person I wanted to meet. Now tell me, is he blue all over?"

ATTACKED BY A RAT.

Attacked by a large rat as it was asleep in its crib shortly after midnight Monday, the 6 months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hampton, of Ashville, N. O., was bitten in the face, and an artery near the eye was severed. The frantic mother, who was awakened by the child's cries, then was attacked by the rodent, which she had thrown to the floor, and was bitten in the foot. The rat fought until it was killed. When first seen the rat was perched on the child's face, gnawing it, having bitten through an ear and the bridge of the nose, and severing an artery so close to an eye that the child bled profusely. A physician said that the child narrowly escaped losing its eye, and that but for the prompt response of the mother to the child's cries it would have been killed.

Drop by drop the offensive discharge caused by Nasal Catarrh falls from the back of the nose into the throat, setting up an inflammation that is likely to mean Chronic Bronchitis. The most satisfactory remedy for Catarrh is Ely's Cream Balm, and the relief that follows even the first application cannot be told in words. Don't suffer a day longer from the distressing and chronic Catarrh. Cream Balm is sold by all druggists for 50 cents, or mailed by Ely Bros, 66 Warren Street, New York.
